

Oct. 2 - Day 1 Defining Grief & Bereavement				Oct. 4 - Day 2 Transformation: Procedural Practices, Processes, Policy and Funding			Oct. 6 - Day 3 Integration: Implementation for the future and recommendations
Time (PST)	Caregivers & Grievers	Interdisciplinary Team	Policy Makers, Funders, Sr. Stakeholders	Time (PST)	Caregivers & Grievers	Interdisciplinary Team	Policy Makers, Funders, Sr. Stakeholders	Time (PST)	Caregivers & Grievers	Interdisciplinary Team	Policy Makers, Funders, Sr. Stakeholders
9:00am - 9:30am	Indigenous Acknowledgement			8:30am - 9:00am	Guided Mindfulness Meditation (Optional)			8:30am - 9:00am	Guided Meditation (Optional)
9:30am - 10:15am	Opening Keynote Speaker - Day 1 Defining grief and collective grief			9:00am - 9:45am	Opening Keynote Speaker - Day 2 Transforming access to respectful and inclusive care for all			9:00am - 9:45am	Opening Keynote Speaker - Day 3 True integration starts with taking a global Indigenous approach to thinking (working collectively to further our mission and support one another)
10:15am - 10:30am	Break & Networking			9:45am - 10:15am	Break & Networking			9:45am - 10:15am	Break & Networking
10:30am - 11:15am	Session 1A-1 Transformation of spirituality during loss	Session 1B-1 Self-care and processing work-related grief	Session 1C-1 The role of family caregivers and the resulting economic and health care impacts	10:15am - 11:00am	Session 1A-2 Hybrid grief and bereavement support using technology	Session 1B-2 Addition of prolonged grief to DSM-5 and the controversies surrounding it	Session 1C-2 Recognition of Long Term Care and seniors' grief (Highlights from COVID Survey)	10:15am - 11:00am	Session 1A-3 Alternative grief support techniques for traumatic and sudden loss	Session 1B-3 Accessibility and service provision satisfaction of bereavement care for minority communities	Session 1C-3 A look at grief and bereavement funding models outside of BC
11:15am - 11:45am	Lunch			11:00am - 11:30am	Networking and Sponsor Presentation			11:00am - 11:30am	Networking and Sponsor Presentation
11:45am - 12:30pm	Session 2A-1 Indigenous and minority communities: who is in our circle of care?	Session 2B-1 The complexities of grieving MAID	Session 2C-1 Challenges of policy development and funding of community-led organizations	11:30am - 12:00pm	Lunch			11:30am - 12:00pm	Lunch
12:30pm - 12:45pm	Break & Networking			12:00pm - 12:45pm	Session 2A-2 Supporting children and youth mental health through grief and death education and communication	Session 2B-2 Supporting grief of deaths caused by overdose, disease, loss of loved ones in acute care, hospice, etc. in the COVID environment	Session 2C-2 Funding transformation: An international perspective	12:00pm - 12:45pm	Session 2A-3 Practical grief and mental health support as we enter into the "new normal"	Session 2B-3 Grief surrounding long trajectory illnesses	Session 2C-3 The value of hospice volunteers: Aligning their credibility in the healthcare system
12:45pm - 1:45pm	Panel Discussion 1: Our stories of grief: challenges from the 2SLGBTQ+, youth, BIPOC, other abled communities			12:45pm - 1:00pm	Break & Networking			12:45pm - 1:00pm	Break & Networking
2:00pm - 2:45pm	Caregivers & Grievers Caucus	Interdisciplinary Team Caucus	Funders, Policy Makers & Sr. Stakeholders Caucus	1:00pm - 2:00pm	Panel Discussion 2: Systematic barriers in grief and bereavement care within BC			1:00pm - 1:45pm	All Caucus Groups Panel Discussion: Collaborative review of recommendations Speakers: Representatives from each Caucus Group
				2:15pm - 3:00pm	Caregivers & Grievers Caucus	Interdisciplinary Team Caucus	Funders, Policy Makers, Sr. Stakeholders Caucus	2:00pm - 3:00pm	Panel Discussion 3: Comprehensive representation in community-based funding discussions and decision-making when building a truly integrated care model
								3:15pm - 3:45pm	Closing - First Nations Elder

Notes: The Caucus sessions will provide an opportunity for attendees from each stream to discuss, review, and consider the perspectives of the panel discussion (flowing from the sessions throughout the day) and evaluate the challenges faced and provide initial recommendations for moving forward. THESE ARE INTERACTIVE DISCUSSIONS OPEN TO ALL PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE. Each stream's topics are geared to the characterized group of people within that stream. However, all sessions are open to attendees of any stream.